

AstraZeneca is proud to share the nonprofit organizations that were awarded charitable contributions from the Virtual STEM Challenge in May of 2020. This year, AstraZeneca shifted funding from the annual Health and Science Innovation Challenge, to provide support for the organizations listed below to support their virtual STEM education efforts. Our next open call for applications is scheduled for July, 2021.

AstraZeneca US Contributions

Funding Recipients

Virtual STEM Challenge

May 2020

Recipient Organization	Program Name	Funding Amount
EdVenture Children’s Museum	Virtual EdVenture—Today’s Play, EdVenture Eats at Home, and EdVenture Connects	$7,500
Elementary Institute of Science	EIS Virtual Learning	$10,000
Explora Science Center & Children’s Museum of Albuquerque	Explora’s #MakeFromHomeChallenge	$7,500
Girlstart: Summer Camp and STEM At Home	Summer Camp and STEM At Home	$10,000
Growing Great	GrowingGreat Equal Access Distance Learning Program	$10,000
Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine Foundation	Science and Math Summer Academy	$10,000
Red River Charter Academy	Gator Gizmo!	$7,500
Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education	Schuylkill Center Virtual Program - Connected Learning	$10,000
Science & Engineering Education Development (SEED), Inc.	Pandemic Science: Virtual Lessons with Material Support	$7,500
Science Buddies	Delivering Remote Learning Solutions for Hands-on STEM to All Students	$10,000
The Colorado Association of Black Professional Engineers and Scientists	Virtual JETS (Junior Engineers, Tomorrow’s Scientists)	$10,000
2020 Virtual STEM Challenge Funding Total:		$100,000